According to the Academic Senate for California Community College's explanation of Title 5, Faculty Senate is an organization whose primary function is to make recommendations with respect to academic and professional matters (commonly called "10+1"). Section 53200 (c) of Title 5 states that academic and professional matters include the following policy and implementation matters:

1. Curriculum including establishing prerequisites and placing courses within disciplines
2. Degree and certificate requirements
3. Grading policies
4. Educational program development
5. Standards or policies regarding student preparation and success
6. District and college governance structures, as related to faculty roles
7. Faculty roles and involvement in accreditation processes, including self-study and annual reports
8. Policies for faculty professional development activities
9. Processes for program review
10. Processes for institutional planning and budget development
11. Other academic and professional matters as are mutually agreed upon between the governing board and the academic senate.

The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges provides a Local Senates Handbook with more information and support.

In the North Orange County Community College District (NOCCCD), Board Policy and Administrative Policy 2510 delineate the roles of groups involved with participatory governance. BP 2510 identifies when the the Board of Trustees or its designee relies primarily upon the Faculty Senate and when it seeks mutual agreement with the Faculty Senates with relation to academic and professional matters.
