

Fullerton College Faculty Senate Constitution

Adopted September 3, 2026 by the Fullerton College Faculty Senate

Preamble

We, the faculty of Fullerton College, in order to promote the cause of higher education; to ensure and promote the faculty role in the governance process; to assure regularized means to debate and make recommendations regarding college and district policies, procedures, and planning, do hereby establish the Fullerton College Faculty Senate to represent the faculty of Fullerton College. The Fullerton College Faculty Senate shall be governed by and consistent with all provisions of California Law.

Article I

Purpose

Section 1

The purpose and primary function of the Faculty Senate shall be to represent the faculty in relations with college and district administration, Associated Students, and the Board of Trustees of the North Orange County Community College District in academic and professional matters (commonly known as 10+1). The Faculty Senate shall serve as the faculty voice in making recommendations in other areas of faculty concern and also to fulfill its responsibilities through participatory governance processes as outlined in the California Education Code and Title 5 (AB 1725, Sections 70901 and 70902).

Section 2

Any Senate recommendation on academic or professional matters shall be communicated promptly to the President of the College. Unless the President disapproves or requires that the recommendation be considered further by other bodies, it shall become a rule and/or regulation of the College, provided it is within and not in conflict with Board policy or collective bargaining provisions or with the law. If the recommendation is disapproved by the President of the College, the Senate shall be notified in writing of the disapproval and the reasons thereof.

Section 3

The Senate shall act as the committee on committees. It shall establish and define the jurisdiction and elect faculty representatives to all District and Campus committees, except for Bargaining Unit representation. With that exception, all faculty membership on committees will be filled by election of the Senate with nominations drawn from the campus at-large as consistent with the provisions in the Faculty Senate Bylaws.

Article II

Composition

Section 1

The Senate shall be composed of elected representatives from each Division, five (5) at-large full-time faculty representatives, two at-large adjunct representatives, the Curriculum Chair, a representative of Associated Students, and the Senate officers, one of whom will serve as delegate to the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges.

The eleven divisions are Business and Computer Information Systems, Counseling and Student Support Services, Ethnic Studies and Student Equity, Fine Arts, Humanities, Library, Math and Computer Science, Natural Sciences, Physical Education, Social Sciences, and Technology and Engineering. When the term faculty is used in this document, it refers solely to Fullerton College faculty.

Section 2

All full-time faculty who are not educational administrators shall be the electorate and shall be eligible for elective membership in the Senate. Part-time faculty shall be eligible for membership as referred to in Sections 1 and 3 of this Article.

Section 3

The Senate shall be composed of the following divisional members: Each Division of the College, as defined in Section 1 of this Article, shall have at least one (1) representative. An additional representative will be elected when there are sixteen (16) total full-time faculty members in a division. Additional representatives will be elected for each fifteen (15) full-time faculty members thereafter. Part-time faculty shall be represented by two (2) elected representatives as consistent with the provision in the Faculty Senate Bylaws.

Article III

Selection and Terms of Membership

Section 1

Each Division shall elect its representatives to the Senate as consistent with the provision in the Faculty Senate Bylaws.

Section 2

The term of office for faculty representatives shall be two (2) years. Divisions shall be limited to a maximum of six (6) representatives, including at-large and part-time faculty representatives but not including the Senate Executive. In an at-large election, if those receiving votes sufficient to be elected when added to existing divisional representatives, part-time faculty representative, and other at-large representatives, should exceed a total of six (6) from that division, only those up to and including that total of six (6) shall be elected, and the at-large candidate(s) from another division receiving the next highest number of votes will be considered elected.

The term of office for the Associated Students representative shall be one (1) year. The Associated Students representative is appointed to Faculty Senate by the Associated Student government following that body's processes.

Section 3

Divisions shall elect at least one (1) alternate representative who shall have the privilege of voting when attending in the place of a regular representative. The alternate shall be elected in the same manner and at the same time as representatives.

Section 4

Two representatives from the part-time faculty will be elected to serve two-year terms, one being elected each year by the second Senate meeting of September as consistent with provisions in the Faculty Senate Bylaws.

Cessation of part-time employment at Fullerton College during the term of office will constitute de facto resignation from the Faculty Senate by that representative. Mid-year vacancies will be filled following adjunct at-large election procedures described in the bylaws.

Section 5

The following are subject to recall procedures initiated by their electors: members of the Senate Executive Council, Division representatives and alternates in the Senate, and at-large Senators. Representatives elected by the Senate on College or District committees are subject to recall by action of the Senate. The Senate bylaws prescribe the appropriate procedures for recalls.

Section 6

Representatives and officers of the Senate shall assume their full duties at the last meeting in May.

Article III

Unfilled Representation

Section 1

If a Division seat is unfilled or the representative has not attended one meeting the Senate by the third meeting of the Senate in the fall semester, the Senate Executive shall declare the seat vacant for the remainder of the academic year.

Section 2

The Senate Executive Council shall declare a seat unfilled if a division representative or respective alternate or an at-large representative is absent from three (3) consecutive regular Senate meetings. In the event a Division seat is declared unfilled due to such absence, the Division shall have thirty (30) days to fill the seat after which it will remain vacant for the remainder of the academic year.

Section 3

If a Divisional representation seat on a Senate committee is unfilled for three consecutive Senate elections or the representative has not attended one meeting of the committee by the third meeting of the semester, the Senate Executive or the committee chair shall declare the seat vacant, and the seat will become at-large for the remainder of the semester.

Article IV
